“Changing Stream in Indian Politics”

Organized Department of Political Science

Date: 11/03/2024

Department of Political Science going to organize one day Interdisciplinary National Webinar on “Changing Stream in Indian Politics” on dated 11/03/2024.

The Indian political landscape has witnessed significant shifts over the past few decades, reflecting changing societal needs, evolving ideologies, and the impact of globalization and technology. Traditionally dominated by the Indian National Congress, Indian politics has become increasingly multi-polar, with the rise of regional parties and the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) emerging as a dominant force. Factors such as economic liberalization, demographic changes, and the influence of social media have played key roles in transforming the political discourse. There has been a move toward issue-based politics, with topics like development, corruption, nationalism, and social justice becoming central to political campaigns. Additionally, the role of young voters and the influence of grassroots movements have introduced a new dynamism to Indian politics, emphasizing inclusivity and accountability. These shifts indicate a more complex and competitive political environment in India, where alliances and voter preferences are constantly evolving. This changing stream in Indian politics reflects the country's diversity and highlights the need for political parties to adapt to the aspirations of a rapidly transforming society. Keeping these points in view “Changing Stream in Indian Politics” is a topic of this webinar. 11th March is the date fixed for a One-day National webinar as a of Adv B. D. Hambarde Mahavidyalaya Ashti., Bhagwan Mahavidyalaya Ashti We invite all student, teachers and researchscholars to participant in this webinar.

Today on March 11, 2024, a one-day online interdisciplinary national seminar was organized in the college on behalf of the Department of Political Science in association with Adv. B.D. Humbarde Mahavidyalaya Ashti and Bhagwan College Ashti. The theme for the said seminar was "Changing Streams in Indian Politics". This national seminar was inaugurated by Hon'ble Kishor Humbarde, President of Ashti Taluka Shikshan Prasarak Mandal. The principal of the college Dr. S. R. Nimbore Sir was present.

The keynote speaker of this seminar was Dr. Shuja Shakir (Professor and Head of Department, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar) was presided over by Dr. Ravindra Kale (Balbhim College, Beed) was. Dr. Shuja Shakir in his orientation speech explained the historical background of Indian politics and explained what kind of changes in Indian politics. While explaining Indian politics, India has been reviewed since independence till date. From Prime Minister Pandit Nehru to Narendra Modi tenure, which new currents were included in Indian politics and how it affected Indian politics? Such as, caste, language, religion etc. He explained how the role of currents works in Indian politics. He further said that there is a drastic change in Indian politics. Earlier principles and ideologies were important in Indian politics. Every political party was influenced by its ideology and today it is disappearing. Political parties are going to any level for their selfish politics and power. In his keynote address, he asserted that this is dangerous for Indian politics and democracy.

As the president of this national seminar, Dr. Ravindra Kale was present. While guiding in his presidential speech, he said that after India's independence, India adopted the democratic system of governance. The government should protect the human rights of the people while performing the role of welfare state. Also care must be taken to ensure that the rights of the people are not violated. Further, he gave detailed information about which political currents have been involved in Indian politics. He told how Indian politics is changing and how Indian political parties and political leaders in the party are fulfilling their role. He said that if the Indian democracy is to be strengthened, every political party and leader and every conscious and conscious Indian citizen should fulfill their responsibility properly.
